Parent Comments:

Yes, the values and quality of the education given to the children is outstanding. The hard work of the teachers is shown in the knowledge and attitude of every child, keep up the good work.

Yes, I wouldn't put my children anywhere else.

Yes. The emphasis on all sorts of learning and opportunities for extra-curricular activities are excellent. The atmosphere of the school is like a caring family, and staff are very open to discussion about any issues.

I would recommend St Patrick's as it's a really good school the teachers are really good. They really make sure the children are well looked after.

An amazing school. Head and deputy greet us off a morning and we feel very welcome. If I have problem they sort it

Yes. Strong community school, very caring towards the children and such high standard of education. Staff are devoted and approachable.

Yes, very good school and multi cultural school. My kids loves going to their school everyday.

Such a family atmosphere, staff work hard, they're amazing always going above and beyond for us and our children

Yes, the range & variety of curriculum taught and the extra opportunities provided to all children.

Of course, because it is an amazing, very good, helpful And outstanding school as well the staff team are great .

I most certainly would. From dropping and picking up my daughter from school I have noticed how happy all the children are. My daughter absolutely adores her teachers especially miss o. The support given to myself as a parent has also been fantastic.

I know my child is safe, well educated and part of a community. The sense of community at St Patrick's is very strong.
